

Glenda Wiles

---

From: Doug Soehren [dsoehren@rkymtn.net]
Sent: Tuesday, February 05, 2008 10:53 AM
To: Glenda Wiles
Subject: CPC core members

Dear Commissioners,

This message was sent to you and the Planning Department last week but returned to me because of an error in your address. Several citizens have been communicating with Shaun M. in the planning department, hoping to work out the glitch. I hope you will weigh in. Peace,
Doug

>
>
> Hello,
> I just heard that CPC core members now have new powers to veto any CPC > decision that is not 100% unanimous. If this is true it only takes > one person at any given meeting to object to whatever the issue is,
> and then all decisions get handed over to the core committee for final > decision. This could basically nullify my participation and the > participation of all other county residents who aren't in the core. If > this is not changed immediately the credibility of the public > involvement process will evaporate and you will have to deal with > disenfranchised and irate citizens. Please do not allow this.
> Thank you,
> Doug Soehren
>
>
>
>
>
Doug